

Chris Brett

Chief Executive Officer

Chris Brett is the Chief Executive Officer of Altera Infrastructure.

Since joining Altera in 2011, Mr. Brett has held several executive leadership roles, serving as President of the Production business since 2015. During this time, he has played a leading role in shaping the company's strategy, securing major offshore developments, building long-term customer partnerships, structuring complex commercial and financing solutions, and leading Altera's transition to independent ownership under Carlyle.

Prior to joining Altera, Mr. Brett was Chief Commercial Officer of Maersk's FPSO business. His career spans more than two decades across the offshore energy sector, with leadership experience in commercial strategy, business development and major offshore developments throughout the North Sea, Brazil, West Africa, Australia and the former CIS. He also serves as Co-Chairman of the Altera & Ocyan Joint Venture in Brazil.

Mr. Brett holds a Bachelor of Laws (Honours) from the Australian National University and has completed executive education at IMD together with the Advanced Management Program at Harvard Business School.
